A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Jina Chaplow

"I wish to greatly thank all the women of the CCW for praying for our mission of bringing healing through various events. Also, for keeping each other in prayer, as Sisters in Christ. We had a successful meeting in October assembling baskets for the Fall Festival!

Thank you all for your great generosity, with your time and donations!!

We have our Cenacolo event coming up in November!! Please pray for a large attendance. Cenacolo is a place of healing for those addicted/depressed! This is a Community that lives by Divine Providence, no money is required by those in need. Healing comes by way of the Sacraments, and Support by those who have lived the horror of addiction/depression!

Please let all know of this Life- changing Event. Father Juan will be visiting Cenacolo, saying Mass, and anointing the residents! Father is a big believer in their mission! The Flyer can be sent virtually as well!

Our Lady of Perpetual Help, hear our Prayers!

Jina

COMMISSIONS

"Dignity of Life"

Christmas Cards Needed!

The CCW will be again distributing Christmas cards to residents in local nursing homes/rehab hospitals, etc. For some, this may be the only card they'll receive. Many of us receive cards from charities this time of year and if you don't plan to use them yourselves, we'd appreciate having them donated to the CCW. We gave out more than 150 cards last year and will be grateful for any donations. Boxed cards from the dollar stores are also welcome. They may be left at the Parish Office for Marie Bonner, CCW.

Thanks so much for your help!

Also, we are in need of someone to chair this commission; please prayerfully consider whether you may be called to serve in this way.

St Mary School

A big thank you to everyone who helped to make this year's Fall Festival a wonderful success. Your Donations, Solicitations, Baked Goods, Help in Assembling the Baskets and Volunteering at the Festival were truly remarkable. We were able to put together about 30 baskets for the raffle. But, it was your continued prayers that brought praise and glory to our church and school.

Thank you

Spirituality

"As iron sharpens iron, so one person sharpens another"
Proverbs 27:17

Thank you all for your prayers for families in the month of October! In the month of November, let's please remember in prayer all the sick and departed.

A big shout out to Mary McGarvey and her team Jenny Lucas and Generosa Cawley for undertaking the cake wheel this year!

Another big THANK YOU to Lynda and Florencia for blessing all the children with sweet treats at the Trunk or Treat!

Christmas Book Gift ideas!

We've been inspired by a variety of children's books that are rooted in the beauty of our Christian faith, and wanted to share them with you!

Inspire your children, friends, Godchildren, grandchildren, nieces and nephews this Christmas by gifting them one of these wonderful books!

They are available on many online sites like Ignatius Press, Amazon, or Catholic Company.

Brilliant: 25 Catholic Scientists, Mathematicians, and Supersmart People. By: David Warren

The book introduces children to many of the Catholics behind groundbreaking discoveries in science and math. Children will embark on an adventure through history and meet faith-filled pioneers in every field from anatomy to astrophysics. They will also learn how brilliant they can be when they unite faith and science!

The Weight of a Mass: A Tale of Faith (The Theological Virtues Trilogy) By: Josephine Nobisso

When a poor devout widow begs for a scrap of bread from a rich faithless baker, she promises to participate in the king's wedding mass as payment for the baker's generosity. The baker writes "One Mass" on a scrap of paper and places it on his scale to determine how much bread it is worth. To his and the entire town's surprise, nothing in the shop, not even the gigantic wedding cakes made for the king, outweighs the simple piece of paper representing the true worth of a mass. Luminous old-world watercolor paintings grace the interior of the book and gold foil artwork lends an air of solemnity and sacred beauty to the story. This has been a best-selling children's book since it was first published.

The Little Flower: The Story of St. Therese of the Child Jesus (Saints Lives) By: Wendeatt

See the life of a saint from her own eyes. Culled from her autobiography Story of a Soul, The Little Flower tells the story of the life of Saint Therese of Lisieux from her own perspective in a way better suited to children. Learn about the Little Way from St. Therese herself and see how her Little Way that led her to love God with all my heart can make you as easily into a saint too. Age 7

Little Convent in the Big City: The Unsolvable Problem. By: Mother Clare Matthias

The brand-new children's book by Mother Clare Matthias, CFR! Mother Clare is on a mission to introduce religious life to Catholic kids who may have never even seen a sister—and to do so with humor, verve, and imaginative story-telling. The Unsolvable Problem introduces kids to Sr. Mary Andy and her lovely convent of sisters, who encounter a big dilemma as they plan a patriotic picnic for the poor. Along the way, kids will learn about convent life, little prayers to Jesus, why to obey the convent bells, and learn what to do when they encounter life's problems, big and small.

Little Star. By: Anthony DeStefano

Tonight a king will be born, and all the stars in heaven are competing to see who can shine the brightest for him. But when the stars see the poor family huddling in the shabby stable, they begin to think that this baby couldn't be a king after all!

That is, all the stars except the smallest, loneliest star in the sky, Little Star. He recognizes the baby Jesus as the King of kings and understands His special message of love. Read on to discover the extraordinary way Little Star serves his King on that cold, dark night. Age 5-8 years

The Winged Watchman. By: Hilda Van Stockum

This acclaimed story of World War II is rich in suspense, characterization, plot and spiritual truth. Every element of occupied Holland is united in a story of courage and hope: a hidden Jewish child, "an underdiver," a dived RAF pilot, an imaginative, daring underground hero, and the small things of family life which surprisingly carry on in the midst of oppression. The Verhagen family who live in the old windmill called the Winged Watchman are a memorable set of individuals whose lives powerfully demonstrate the resilience of those who suffer but do not lose faith. Ages 10 and up

The Catholic Comic Book Bible: Gospel of Luke

The Catholic Comic Book Bible series features colorful, engaging drawings, along with the full text of Scripture. The engaging illustrations help Scripture come alive and capture the importance and the dignity of the characters. The frame-by-frame narrative makes it easy—and entertaining—for everyone to discover the entire Gospel of Luke.

Other Titles Suggested!

- Receiving Jesus for Little Ones
- Divine Mercy for Children: A Guided Tour of the Museum of Miracles
- Heavenly Hosts: Eucharistic Miracles for Kids (Catholic Stories for Kids)
- How the Angels Got Their Wings
- The Spider Who Saved Christmas
- The Grumpy Old Ox
